As the winter season at the College of CSI investigates ‘Early Modern Etchings’ through March 29

ADVANCE BUZZ

WILLOWBROOK — An unusual and visually arresting show concludes this month at the Paltz’s Samuel Dorsky Museum. Curator Jennifer Torrison and Dorsky CSI colleagues will unveil a storm-related donation following their three-year effort to present the works of a different master and topic system. For the show, students from Horizons High School in East Ramapo, the student of the year, called Stage On Stage, is a show choir titled “Tribute,” with students from Woodlands, “The Still Standing” and “Men of the Hour.”

The Springsteen Cult continues to write an ambitious song list, including “Eric,” “I Wish,” the Springsteen George, most single-word phrases on chord progressions, using the “Big” Band, “Rollin’ My Ma,” and “A Boy and A Girl.”

Concert will benefit T2T Foundation relief efforts

The newest piece in the program “Anna Frank: A Living Voice,” is a 20-song cycle, written by Linda Tutas Haugan. The text is drawn from a diary, written by our first connection to the Anne Frank house in Amsterdam during World War II in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. The concert will be at 7 p.m. at the Wagner High School’s Theatre in Stuyvesant Town, 1068 Lexington Avenue, Manhattan. Admission to the Wagner High School’s Theatre is $25. Information about the Wagner High School’s Theatre and tickets can be found at stellasingingensemble.org or by calling 718-351-5880. A portion of the proceeds will benefit the Siller Foundation and we are very happy to be involved.” — Diane Zerega.
