CARNEGIE HALL PERFORMANCE TOURS

Since 1891, Carnegie Hall has been considered the most prestigious concert hall in the United States. Celebrated composers and conductors such as Tchaikovsky, Stravinsky and Bernstein have graced its stage. Countless classical works were first heard here. Legendary musicians such as Benny Goodman, Duke Ellington and Billie Holiday helped integrate swing and jazz into the musical world with their performances in this world renowned hall. Now you can give your students the opportunity to perform in this outstanding venue.

Carnegie Hall “Masterworks” Choral Performance Tours

Offers qualified ensembles the opportunity to collaborate on a major work for choir, professional orchestra and soloist.

Carnegie Hall “Symphonic Series” Band & Orchestra Performance Tours

Designed to give ensembles the opportunity to perform in an outstanding venue and receive comments from nationally recognized music educators and professors.

Carnegie Hall “Octavo” Choral Performance Tours

Gives qualified ensembles the opportunity to collaborate with other high school choirs from across the United States to perform exciting repertoire.

Carnegie Hall “Debut Series” Performance Tours

Gives deserving bands, orchestras and choirs the opportunity for a solo appearance, with the goal being an excellent artistic experience, both in preparation and in performance.
